

It is usual for the Land Registry to retain the power of attorney for filing with the papers relating to the application, but a solicitor can, if he so desires, file the power at the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice, and obtain an office copy for the use of the Land Registry.

The system of land registration is rapidly spreading and it behoves the solicitor's clerk to familiarize himself with its methods of working, so as to ensure that in the event of compulsory registration increasing its bounds he has some knowledge of the subject.
